GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR.

No.TR(B-II)-296(1)
Dated Simla, the 12th July 1943.

M E M O

The Government of India have decided as a measure of polic to discontinue the training of War Technicians at training centres which can accommodate only a small number of trainees and in consequence of this decision, the application of the Technical Training Scheme to the Government Electrical Factory, Bangalore City, which was sanctioned in this Deptt. letter No.TR 296(1), dated the 19th July 1941, is being withdrawn. The Government of India greatly appreciate the valuable and ungrudging assistance they have received from you in this matter and wish to assure you that their decision to close small centres is in no way a reflection on the co-operation and help they have received from you. They are indeed most grateful to you.
